the Truck House on Wednesday night to arrange for the reception of Montclair Council who will soon visit Bloomfield. -The Silver Lake Improvement Association will seek an injunction on the Erie Railway Co, unless the agreement by which the road secured right of way through Mr. Wakeman's property be complied with. This agreement calls for the erection of a depot.

-The Bloomfield Building Association have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, A. R. Brewer; Vice-President, J. M. Bancroft; Secretary, Edward P. Mitchell; Treasurer, A. R. Brewer; Directors, W. T. Brewer, W. C. Chambers, J. Howard Hardcastle, J. M. Bancroft, E. P. Mitchell and A. R. Brewer.

-A new lodge, (German) of the Order of United Friends, is being organized in Bloomfield. A preliminary meeting was held in Metz's Hall on Monday evening. Grand officers of the lodge will be present at the meeting next Monday night to perfect the organization, and install officers. Metz's Hall will be used as a lodge room by the new council.

-The one year term in the Board o Freeholders, fell to the lot of Freeholder Thomas McGowan. There was no rivalry between the Messrs McGowan and Cadmus, one was perfectly willing to concede to the other without the ceremony of drawing lots. In the organization of the Board, Messrs McGowan and Cadmus are assigned to their old positions, the former, Chairman of the Lunacy Committee, and the latter of the Public Building

The other soloists are Mrs. Canon, contral'o; Mr. Henry M. Mason, tenor; and Mr. E. M. Bowman, organ. The third recitil may be attended today at the same hour.

-the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Essex County, N. J. will hold their May convention in Westminster Church, Thursday May 17th. At the morning session interesting papers will be read on: "fhe Needs of the Hour." by Miss Bessie Babbitt of Morristown, N. . "Social Purity," by Mrs. E. B. England, of Irvington, N. J. At the afternoon session the State president, Mrs. S. J. C. Downs, of Ocean Grove, will be present and take charge of the question box, and Mrs. Ellis of Ocean Grove, will deliver an address. Devotional hours at 9.30 A. M. and 1.30 P. M.

There is a demand in Bloomfield for cheap, desirable building plots, but most of the available ones are too-high in price for the location, or owners of large tracts wil not sell unless they can sell the whole tract at once. Mr. Joseph A Poloubet has taken the management of several such large plots and successfully divided them up and sold them to men of moderate means at a small advance on the price asked for the whole, and, no doubt, with perfect satisfaction to all parties concerned. He has now taken a contract for the sale of the Page property on Bloom-I be Edmiston and Miss Jessie | field, Ridgewood and Belleville avenues, of turned last Wednesday on which he offers at attractive prices for hor Line Steamer "Devonia," that desirable, location. Any one who wants one of these choice lots at first contract price will do well to see Mr. Peloubet at once. We understand he has also some very fine business property in the Centre at equally attractive prices. -The close of Rev. John N. Ennslin's twentieth year as pastor of the German Presbyterian Church, was made the occacion of tendering him a surprise by the Young Peoples' Association of the church last Monday evening. On the eventful night, the pastor was sitting in the parlor conversing with one of the trustees about church matters, when the door bell rang. He went to the door and was surprised to find a number of young people there who invited him to come into the lecture room of the church. When he reached the entrance and saw the large assemblage, he wanted to go back to the house and take off his study gown and slippers, and attire himself appropriately. Lut the young people refused to listen to his entreaties and dragged him uncermoniously into the room. The whole assembly then arose and sung, at the conclusion of which, Dr. Seibert, in a few appropriate remarks informed paster Emslin of the occasion of the gathering. Soveral speeches followed by Dr. Hauser and others, all bearing testimony of the love of the congregation for their pastor. Mr. Henry Menser, president of the Young Peoples' Association, then presented him: with a beautiful gold watch. When the surprised recipient of the gift mastered emotions, he feelingly responded to the people for their kindlyness referring to the fact that his position as their pas tor was a very happy one. The regular programme of the evening was then carried on, reading by Mr John Swartz and Mr. Fred Morhman, singing by the Poly-hymnia Society from the Seminary, and instrumental music by Messers Johnson,

HALL-WILSON. Dr. John E. Wilson of this town was united in marriage to Miss Alice Hall, also of Bloomfield, at the residence of her father, Mr. Frank Hall, on Ridgewood avenue, at half-past five o'clock on Wednesday of this week. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Carter of the Montclair Episcopal Church. The bride wore white satin, trimmed with lace, and the brid smaids were dressed in hellotrope and pink. The bridesmaids were Miss Snyder and Miss Wilcox, and the ushers Messrs Arnold Pope. Walter Pope, Frank S. Benson and William W. parties were present. The gifts were numerous and costly. The newly married couple started on their wedding trip immediately after the supper, and upon their return will reside in the handsome and commodious louse recently erected for them by Mr. Hall on the

-Mr. Harry Darwin has been busily en ployed during the last few weeks in supervising the grading and finishing around the three houses recently erected at Glen Ridge by his father, Mr. A. G. Darwin. The work as far as done shows the advantage of having a man of intelligence and technical training at the head of the working forces.

-Rev. James B. King of Sandwich, Mass., will occupy the pulpit of the Glen Ridge Congregational Church next Sunday, morning and evening.

-Mr. Joseph D. Galla her has had Messrs. Brown & Jacobus, masons, at work during the week repointing the foundations of his house.

-Mr. Gregory has been improving the appearance of his house on Snowden St. by a coat of paint. Snowden street is rapidly becoming one of the most attractive streets at Glen Ridge.

-Mr. Howe's house on Hillside avenue looks young again in its new dre.s.

- the citizens of Glen Ridge are look ing auxiously for the gravel on Ridgewood avenue, and it would be well when the gravel is on, or even before to refresh the avenue with a little water. -It is reported that the Railroad Company is now wrestling with the Board of Freeholders over the raising of the bridge at Ridgewood avenue. There should be no difficulty over granting leave for so desirable an improvement. -The old days, when it was impossible for a Bloomfield gentleman to sit with his wife in the morning trains to New York, because of the omnipresent Montclair gentleman in each seat, and when the Railroad Company ran a locked car to Bloomfield, are recalled by the manner in which the Montclair man distributes himself through the morning Express. -List of letters remaining in the Glen Ridge Post Office, May 1st, 1888: Buyers, Jr. Robert; Chamberlain, Mr. Howe.

THOMAS MORITZ, P. M. -Attend the Newark Bee Hive Bargain

It is frequently asserted that the poorer a man is the more numerous his dogs. Judged by this standard, the residents of Glen Ridge should be in the poor-house or at least receiving out door relief, for the name of the Glen Ridge dogs is legion. Nor are we confined to any one size or kind of dog, all sizes of dogs from the tiny terrior that shakes hands with the rear of your pantaloon leg, to the huge St. Bernard that greets you with an affectionate grip of your throat: 'flourish in this favored region, and all kinds of dog, from the aristocratic thorough-bred to the Pielbian "yellow dog" turive and prosper and make night musical. Each new comer adds to the army of dogs, dogs are everywhere and still they come. The proverb that "there is always room for one more" serves to apply with perfect truth to dogs. What a paradise for the dog catcher and tax gatherer is here, what a harvest for the tailor and the surgeon is preparing, what a location for a hydrophobia hospital!

charged for neglect of work. Mr. John Oakes immediately proceeded to New York and secured new help. Roger. H. Butterworth, the well known groceryman, whose place of business is on the corner of Dodd and Prospect Sts., and Miss Eva Daniels of Little Falls were married on Wednesdey evening. The cer-emony was performed by Rev. R. M. Aylsworth, paster of Little Falls Metho-dist church, and took place at the residence of the bride's parents, many friends of both parties were present. Mr. and Mrs. Butterworth will take up their residence on Westcott street.

Inited States Circuit Court, Ellor Bros., hat manufacturers, will have to give bonds to the amount of $5,000, as surety for any udgments which the Hat Sweat Company may secure against them in the suits about to be brought against them. The bond must be given in fifteen days or an injunction will be served upon them. Many other firms are implicated in this suit. McGall & Allen's bond is $15,000, Burg & Co's, $12,000 and other manufacturers in proportion. The ruling of the Court is considered a victory for the Hat Sweat Company. -Police Officers Harvey, Smith, and Foster made a raid through the freight cars on the siding of the N. Y. & G. L. Railroad on Saturday Aght, and arrested George Hell and Jesse Lyon, two tramps, who were sleeping in the cars. Complaint had been made by the Bloomfield Paper Mill Co. that cars consigned to them, were broken open and made a rendezvous of by tramps. The two men arrested were taken before Justice Hall who committed them to thirty days in the County Jail.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

-The Womens' Auxiliary held an interesting meeting Monday afternoon, receiving six new members.

-A student from Princeton College will probably conduct the service at Montomery School-house Sunday evening. -Many of the ladies present at the Convention from Jersey City, Elizabeth and other places, spoke very highly of Bloomfield's beautiful park. -The ladies of the Park M. E. Church will hold a lawn party Decoration Day, on the lawn adjoining the residence of William A Bromley. A brass band will furnish music, and a merry-go-round afford plersure to the children. -The meeting Saturday night last, led by Rev. Gardner, of New York City, was the largest held for a long time, and very interesting. Mr. Louis Bliss was present with his cornet as he will be every Saturday to accompany the singing, Mr. Thomas P. Day will lead the meeting this

Amusement Notes. COL. W. M. MORTON OF MINER'S THEATRE.

A testimonial benefit, complimentary to Col. W. M. Morton, the resident manage of Mr. H. C. Miner's Newark Theatre, is announced to take place in Newark on the night of June 9th. The compliment was formally conferred by a letter recently sent to the genial manager, signed by Governor Robert S. Green, Hon. Geo. A. Halsey, Hon. S. B. Jackson and many other New Jersey gentlemen, distinguished in political, professional and social life. The letter intimates that the benefit is tendered in consideration of the personal regard for Col. Morton by leading citizens of the State, as a testimonial to his management of this beautiful place of dramatic amusement in Newark-the finest in the State. The event will be a fitting close to the season in Newark, and no doubt a very brilliant social affair. Some of the most distinguished musical and dramatic artists known to the stage have tendered their services for the occasion.

Special Notice from the Newark
